

[No. 331, A.]

[Published March 22, 1889.]

CHAPTER 119.

AN ACT to change the time of holding the general terms of the circuit court in the counties of Clark and Trempealeau, in the sixth judicial circuit of Wisconsin, and to make such general terms special terms for said circuit.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Changing terms of court in sixth judicial circuit.

SECTION 1. The general terms of the circuit court for the county of Clark shall be holden on the first Monday of June and December in each and every year; and the general terms of said court for the county of Trempealeau shall be holden on the first Mondays of March and September in each and every year.

General terms in counties of Clark and Trempealeau to be special for whole circuit.

SECTION 2. Every general term of the circuit court for the counties of Clark and Trempealeau aforesaid, shall also be a special term for the whole sixth judicial circuit, and at any such term of said court any and all business may be done arising in any county in said circuit, which might be done at any general term, except the trial of issues of fact by a jury in cases other than those arising in actions of quo warranto and mandamus, and excepting also the trial of issues of fact in actions made local by law, and arising in some county other than the one in which such special term shall be held.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of July, A. D. 1889.

Approved March 21, 1889.